

Hennepin County towns in 1862

Town name	Settled by Europeans in	known Indian connections	historical notes
Bloomington	1843	1839 Cloud Man moved his village from Lake Calhoun to the Minnesota Valley in present-day bloomington near Portland Ave. 1843 Peter & Louisa Quinn, 1st European settlers in Bloomington, taught farming to the Dakota living nearby. Gideon Pond's Oak Grove Mission taught nearby Dakota people.
Brooklyn Center	1858		formed in 1858 from Brooklyn Township
Brooklyn Park	1858		formed in 1858 from Brooklyn Township
Champlin	1859
Chanhassen†
Corcoran	1855
Crystal
Dayton	platted in 1855
Deephaven
Eden Prairie	1862-farmers
Edina	settlement began in the 1850s.		note of interest: when Henry David Thoreau visited Minnesota in 1861, he visited Jonathan Taylor Grimes at his mill in Edina.
Excelsior	1850's vacation destination
Golden Valley	1850's	Ojibway and Dakota encampments on Medicine Lake
Greenfield
Greenwood
Hanover†
Hopkins	settlers 1852
Independence
Long Lake	1855	Dakota & Chippewa noted here 1859-1860
Loretto	1866
Maple Grove	1851	Winnebago Indians known to be there before settlers

Hennepin County towns in 1862

Maple Plain	1851		Lake Independencee there- probably were native Americans
Medicine Lake			Dakota & Chip. Encampments
Medina
Minneapolis		artifacts found by Lake Calhoun, present day Lakewood Cemetery.
Minnetonka	1852
Minnetonka Beach
Minnetrista
Mound		city says prehistoric Indians lived there
New Hope
Orono	no-1889
Osseo	1855	Pierre Bottineau was there in 1852 on the "Bottineau Prairie"; 1st permanent settlers in 1855, including some Native Americans.
Plymouth	1852	Dakota had encamped at Medicine Lake
Richfield	1850
Robbinsdale			founded 1893
Rockford†
Rogers			founded 1880
Shorewood
Spring Park
St. Anthony Village†	1861		<a href="http://collections.mnhs.org/MNHist
oryMagazine/articles/35/v35i03p
117-129.pdf">http://collections.mnhs.org/MNH istoryMagazine/articles/35/v35i03p 117-129.pdf
St. Bonifacius
St. Louis Park	settlers in 1852		then named Elmwood
Tonka Bay			Peter Gideon, early settler
Wayzata	settled in 1850's	city history says was center of Chief Shakopee's village
Woodland
Fort Snelling	1820's	Many Indian villages located below on the river.	