EVENTS: battles, deaths, injuries.

Indian Village: The names of Sisseton chiefs Lean Bear and White Lodge have been associated with Lincoln County.

HISTORIC PEOPLE CONNECTED TO CONFLICT

Thomas Robinson, mixed blood man, married a daughter of Wakute, was a courier during the conflict, carrying messages from Little Crow to Col Sibley, then a scout, spent his last years living near his friend John Moores in Hope Township. TDE 216n11.

Note: Thomas Robinson was sometimes referred to along with Thomas Robertson as "the two Toms", because both worked as couriers, and sometimes worked together.
